Exotic Vacation for Kosher Travelers

The reviews are in. We've been to Italy, Switzerland, Israel and Los Angeles and the excitement and joy on my children's face on this trip to Costa Rica was incomparable!" "With the items provided by Kosher Casas our Shabbat table was gorgeous, which is very rare when you are kosher and on vacation," "Davening on the porch, while monkeys were swinging around them, is an experience my kids will never forget."

Are you tired of packing suitcases filled with cans of tuna fish, peanut butter and plastic dishes? Are you running out of clever ideas how to smuggle kosher meat across international borders? Are you bored with family vacations limited to places with readily available kosher food?

Until now, if you were a kosher traveler wanting to go on vacation somewhere off the beaten path, your options have been limited. The ability to find quality kosher food, have a completely furnished gourmet kosher kitchen at your disposal, and a beautiful place to eat your meals have not gone hand-in-hand with carefree vacations and seeing the world. Kosher Casas is now changing all of that and revolutionizing the concept of kosher travel.

Founded by two veteran kosher travelers and business professionals, Kosher Casas in Costa Rica offers luxurious villas, all complete with kashered kitchens, kashered barbecues, two sets of cookware and extensive kosher menus of prepared and unprepared foods delivered to the villa of your choosing prior to arrival. With spectacular villas in each of the three distinct regions of Costa Rica, kosher travelers can now easily experience a place like no other on earth, offering a wide range of adventures and leisure opportunities to relax and enjoy nature's beauty.

Catering to every adventurer's whim from water repelling, zip lining, surfing, and much more-to just relaxing in the sun, Kosher Casas in Costa Rica, allows the kosher traveler an unspoiled paradise complete with rainforests, jungles, waterfalls, rivers and hot springs. In terms of beauty, Costa Rica is unsurpassed.
